

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A method comprises a "two-step" formation of a front side substrate contact in an FET formed over a buried insulator layer on a substrate, thereby avoiding the difficulties and problems involved in etching openings of high aspect ratio through a stack of different materials, as in a conventional front side substrate contact opening.

2000.064400.050001